L. Seigensen has been getting great pleasure out of his radio. Mr. Seigensen and family postponed his trip to Denmark till this fall, but he has been getting all the latest over the air.

The surprise party on Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dankwerth was well attended and it shows the popularity of the young couple. The music was first-class, and great credit for same; it being given free by J. A. Grant and family.

A few of our young bachelors are beginning to wonder what kind of a personality our present school ma'am has. She is fond of music and radio, but she looks with a shy kind of a side smile to most of them and passes on. We know the progress the children are making, and the above accounts for it.

Mr. Ronald Elder is on a visit to his sister in the east. Mr. Elder made his last trip east when his brother, Jim, died. Mr. Elder's mother died at Huntington, Quebec, last summer.

Mr. George Collins was called to his home in Idaho, owing to his father being seriously ill.

Frenchie Chartrand says he will be able to play for all dances, locally, next winter. His dad made him a present of a violin at Christmas.

Chris. Nelson, and his popular chef, Ben, are two of the most popular figures at the surprise parties. This is Leap year.

SCOTS GATHERING
AT IRRICANA

—o—

Bagpipes, haggis, Scotch songs and dances, featured a celebration in honor of the immortal Bobbie Burns, held in the Oddfellows' Hall, Irricana, on Friday evening, February 1st. Over two hundred people, many of whom had come considerable distances, were present, and the evening was thoroughly enjoyable, and for those who came from the land of the heather and the mountain, formed an event long to be remembered with pleasure.

The Haggis Comes In

When all the company were seated shortly after nine p.m., the strains of the bagpipes were heard in the anteroom, and Pipe-Major McGowan, of Calgary, marched with stately strides into the hall, playing the music that is dear to all Scottish hearts, and second in the procession came 'Scotty' Oswald, bearing in his uplifted arms, the haggis, without which no Scottish gathering is complete.

Mr. Hugh Miller, veteran resident of Irricana, and perfervid Scot, presided over the evening's festivities in a very capable manner. After the blessing had been asked by Mr. Mc. Laren, of Calgary, the company, which filled every available seat in the hall, proceeded to do justice to a sumptuous repast, for which great credit is due to the ladies of the Burns' Club committee, who prepared and served it.

Hugh Miller's Address

The chairman, in a commendably brief opening address, said that he considered it a great honour to be allowed to preside at a gathering of men and women to celebrate the anniversary of the birth of the world's greatest poet. All countries had their poets, and in their own countries these poets receive the homage which is due to them, but Scotland's immortal Bard was in a class by himself, because each year in every place, Scotsmen gathered and the immortal memory of the national Bard was toasted.

Burns had given Scotland a great heritage in poetry, but his career and his work illustrated the excellence of the Scottish educational system. He ventured to say that in no country of the civilized world a ploughman living the frugal life that Burns and his parents lived, be his gifts ever so great, could have procured the education to enable him to put his poetic fancy into words—and such words.

While he felt that he could go on for hours speaking in glowing terms of the genius of Burns, he understood the duty of a chairman, and consequently would not trespass upon the time of others who would speak, by any further remarks at that stage.

Songs of Scotland

A programme of the beautiful songs of Scotland, most of them Burns' composition, was given by a number of ladies and gentlemen of Calgary, members of the Scottish Choir of that city. The rendition was exceptionally good, and encores were demanded in every case. Among those who contributed to the musical part of the programme were Mesdames Davis, Wilson, and McCormick, and Messrs McLaren, Ferries, and Wilson.

The toast of "The King" was loyally given. The toast of the "Immortal Memory" was drunk in traditional silence. The address on this toast was to have been given by Mr. A. L. Smith, but he was unavoidably absent, and the chairman filled the gap with an appropriate talk, extolling the memory of the great poet.

Toasts "The Lassies"

The honour of proposing the toast of "The Lassies", fell to Mr. John Mackenzie, Strathmore, who first of all expressed his pleasure at the function, and congratulated the Burns' Club on their enterprise, and the splen-

Big Programme of Organized Winter Sport in Canada

MONTREAL GIRLS ARE EXPERTS ON SNOWSHOES

GOING DOWN! SPEEDY TRAVELING BY TOBOGGANS ON QUEBEC'S SLIDE

WINTER in Canada is synonymous with winter sports. With the advent of ice and snow these sports begin; skis, sleds, tobogganss, skates, snowshoes and hockey sticks, together with warm, gay sport costumes, make their appearance. A psychological change takes place in the social atmosphere, merriment radiates its contagion, briskness characterizes all outdoor movement.

For many years Quebec and Montreal have been Mecca for a large number of winter sport lovers, who flock to these two cities on the St. Lawrence during carnival seasons. There are, however, many other Canadian points where organized sport is a winter feature. St. John has its skating tournament in which many professionals participate. Shawbrooke, Quebec, has planned an elaborate skiing contest and is providing some splendid trophies as awards.

Grey Rocks Inn, an all-the-year-round resort in the Laurentian Mountains, 85 miles northwest of Montreal, offers acropiane-ski-jorring in addition to many other winter sports. Winnipeg will set aside the week of February 4-11, for carnival festivities which are projected on a vast scale, in addition the great annual bonspiel, lasting several weeks, will be staged as usual. Banff in the Canadian Rockies, which is fast becoming as popular in winter as it has long been in summer, is planning to outdo former efforts. Winter sports are enjoyed there all through the white season and will culminate in a gay carnival lasting from Feb. 9 to 16, the last two days being devoted to a bonspiel. Dog races are a feature of Banff's winter season and famous teams from Le Pas will run at Banff. Le Pas will celebrate in carnival style from March 8 to 15, during which period the famous 200-mile non-stop dog-team race will be run. Revelstoke, a stronghold of ski-jumping, will stage contests Feb. 5th and 6th.

Both Montreal and Quebec are making extraordinary preparations for this season's programs. Mount Royal, in the former, provides an unexcelled playground where skiing, snowshoeing, bob-sledding and tobogganing may be enjoyed at their best. Skating contests, torchlight festivities on the Mountain and the presence of professional entertainers, provide amusement for Montrealers and visitors.

Quebec is really the Capital of Winter Sports in Canada, its Dufferin Terrace and Chateau Frontenac are names to conjure with among winter sport devotees all over Canada and the United States.

The three-track toboggan slide on the Terrace is generally the centre of attraction and crowds line its sides to watch the swift flying toboggans. A fine ski-jump, a skating rink, indoor and outdoor curling, contests and parades by the many ski and snowshoe clubs fill every waking hour. A team of husky dogs with sleigh and driver is maintained by the Chateau management for the use of the public.

Quebec's carnival will end in a riot of excitement when the third Eastern International Dog-Team Derby is run there on Feb. 21, 22 and 23. Both Canadian and American teams to the number of about eighteen, will strive to win the Gold Cup, Silver Cup and $2,000 in prize money.

SUCCESSFUL DANCE AT BERTA VALE SCHOOL

A dance was held at Berta Vale School on Wednesday, January 30th, in aid of the Junior Red Cross. It was the best social evening of the season. We were sorry that our school was too small to accommodate such a large attendance. But it goes to show the spirit of the people when anything is got up for a good cause, and we take this opportunity of thanking them for their presence and support, and those who so kindly bought tickets and did not turn up, although they missed a good time.

Everyone enjoyed themselves and went away happy. It was announced at the dance that it was the intention of the committee to hold another dance for the same cause in the near future, which will be advertised in the Standard.

Great credit is due to Mr. and Mrs. Galpin for furnishing the music free of charge, also Miss Agnes Barry, Walter Mercer and Bert Barry, and those who worked so hard to make the dance a success, especially the ladies, Mrs. Dancey, Mrs. Reynolds and Mrs. Barry, who looked after the good things to eat and drink.

Total receipts $36.75; expenses, $14.25; amount forwarded to the Junior Red Cross Hospital, $22.50.

The committee comprised Mr. Reynolds, Mr. Dancey, and Mr. Barry. Our worthy school master, Mr. Dockery, was treasurer. —Contributed

The weather man has been good to us in many respects, but hockey fans are disappointed. The ice was too soft for hockey last Wednesday, and also Sunday. The local team are scheduled to go to Drumheller Wednesday, February 6, if there is ice. As soon as the temperature gets lower we will have ice on the rink, and the manager is keping tab on the weather-man. Here's hoping we have ice for February 14, St. Valentine's Masquerade and dance. If there is no ice there will be a dance anyway in the Masonic Hall.

A number of Rockyford people attended the dance at Redlands last Thursday.

CRIBBAGE POPULAR INDOOR SPORT AT ROCKYFORD

—o—

The Ladies Club, of Rockyford, were responsible for a cribbage tournament which set Rockyford on edge. It was held in the Mason's Hall on January 29, there being fifty-four entries. Play commenced at 9.30 p.m. and supper was served at midnight, after which dancing was engaged in, the music being kindly donated and played by

The Ice Carnival

—o—

Rockyford Ice Carnival, held January 23rd, was a success financially. Everyone who attended enjoyed themselves. The weatherman was not very good to us, it being cold. With better weather a larger crowd of funmakers, broom ball artists, and spectators probably would have attended the doings. The gala commenced with a hockey game between Swalwell and the local team, ending in a score of 5-4 for the visitors. It was a splendid game. The second period was enlivened by a fight between one of th home boys and two of the visitors, but our local heavy weight was ever on the job and nipped the disturbance in the bud. No hard feelings either. Rockyford jazz artistes enlivened the evening by marching up to the rink in a body about 7.45 p.m. and gave a few selections up till eight p.m. The broom ball game between the married and single was sure some game with stars like Tax Recovery Pust, Sky Pilot Boltz, Caruso Costello, Slippery Bill Rud, Wheat Pool Haysced Dorsey, Smoke Ball Miller, Lizzie Gibson, Doc Sawbones, and numerous others. There were several accidents and the local hoffer had a busy time the following day.

It was an exciting game from start to finish. During the last of the three fifteen-minute periods Caruso Costello got ambitious, and scored a goal on Tax Recovery.

The score ended 1-0 in favor of the single men.

There were races, for men, ladies, boys, and girls. The costumes were not as plentiful as they might have been. Messrs Walrod, McGuire, and Sangster were the judges. Skating was enjoyed till 10.30, when the young folk set commenced dancing at the Masonic Hall, to the music of Mrs. Myers and Mrs. J. Weins. Every one was well satisfied with the day.

February 6

WHOSOEVER WILL COME AFTER ME, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.—For whosoever will save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel's the same shall save it.—Mark 8:34, 35.

February 7

BRETHREN, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such a one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted.—Galatians 6:1.

February 8

JESUS SAID UNTO HER, I am the resurrection and the life, he that believeth in me, though he were dead yet shall he live; And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die.—John 11:25.

February 9

HE THAT PASSETH BY, and meddleth with strife, belonging not to him, is like one that taketh a dog by the ears.—Proverbs 26:17.

February 10

WHEN THE RIGHTEOUS ARE IN AUTHORITY, the people rejoice; but when the wicked beareth rule, the people mourn.—Proverbs 29:2.

February 11

OWE NO MAN ANYTHING, but to love one another; for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law. Love worketh no ill to his neighbor; therefore love is the fulfilling of the law.—Romans 13:8,10.

February 12

KEEP BACK thy servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me; then shall I be upright, and I shall be innocent from the great transgression. Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, my strength and my Redeemer.—Psalm 19:13,14.

Mrs. D. Myers and Miss Sally Spillard. The party broke up at 2 a.m. The final play and winning of prizes, which are on exhibition in the Rockyford Drug Store will probably be about February 19, with a musical programme and dance. Watch for definite date next week, and list of players.

Baintree Notes

—o—

A joint meeting of the U.F.A. and U.F.W.A. was held in the school house on Friday evening. After the routine business was completed, an interesting talk was given by Mrs. F. E. Wyneth on the work of the convention, held recently in Edmonton. The speaker dealt with the most important subjects brought up during the convention, and at the end of her address was awarded a hearty vote of thanks for the service rendered. On the suggestion of Chairman Hiatt, a number of speakers took the floor and delivered, in impressive language, lectures on everything from Faith, Hope and Charity, to a provincial bank and the wheat pool. The various matters were rewarded with vigorous applause from everyone except the goat, who, during the entire evening, insisted on keeping his horns in a sharpened condition. Refreshments were served by the ladies at a late hour, and everyone went home rejoicing that fate (and the C.P.R.) had been extremely kind in making them live in such a happy community. The next meeting will be held on February 15th, when a secretary-treasurer will be elected in place of T. Longbotham, who has resigned.

If ever any of our rich relatives die and leave us a fortune, we are going to invest in a new pair of suspenders. If the sum is very large, we would also like to buy a new door handle.

On January 25th a large number of friends paid a surprise visit to the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Lyons. Dancing and whist was carried on until the morning, and everyone went away highly delighted with the entertainment provided.

If we could only get one of those gold chariots that they are digging out of old King Tut's tomb, Wouldn't it make some of our Ford friends green with envy? Speaking about tombs reminds us: What is the use of being miserable when you can get a first-class funeral for $78.50? Why the 20c? We don't know, but if you doubt this statement, look up the advertising column in your daily paper.

A number of Baintree residents were aboard the west-bound train that went into the ditch near Lyalta last Tuesday. Fred Townsend received a severe cut on the head, but all the rest of our friends escaped with slight bruises and a severe shaking up.

Before we go for the coal and wood, let us tell you a little story. Two Irishmen got into a mix-up about the ownership of a bottle of whisky. A mutual friend, who by the way, happened to be Scotch, was appointed stake-holder during the bout. After fighting furiously for some time the winner looked around for the prize, but lo, and behold, the Scot had gone, and so was the bottle. Moral—Before you get into an argument, drink the whisky.

C.G.I.T. PROVINCIAL CONFERENCE

—o—

The theme, of the Provincial conference held last fall in Edmonton and in Calgary for delegates from C.G. I.T. groups all over the Province, was Christian Citizenship. This theme was carried out through all the sessions of the confences. A great many delegates came from all parts of the province, and in every way the conferences were a success. The girls themselves carrid out their part of the various programs very well, and the many addresses were particularly inspiring. The delegates took back to their groups a great deal of helpful information.

Carseland Notes

—o—

Frank Nash has been sick ever since he came back from Edmonton. His condition was so critical last week that the doctor was called, who, after an examination, found an advanced stage of pneumonia. At present writing Mr. Nash is much better and well on the way to recovery.

A. O. Myers returned from Oregon last week. He says "good country is right, and I'm mighty glad to get back to it."

The P. B. Club meets this week at Mrs. Laurie's.

W. L. Brown will be moving the post office in the very near future.

One item in last week's notes seems to have struck fire in several places, and at the same time started some folks to thinking.

The school board held a meeting last week. Mr. Nash, the chairman, being sick, was not present. Very little business was done. The fire escapes will be constructed under the supervision of Ed. Nelson. The vans were examined in order to decide whether to replace them with new ones or have the old repaired. No action was taken. Fire extinguishers will be placed in each of the school rooms.

Mr. W. Laurie is sporting a new Ford truck.

Gail Field was in Calgary last week. He says this new teeth "business" isn't what it's cracked up to be.

The C.G.I.T. girls spent last Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Moorhouse.

The U.F.A. and U.F.W.A. held a joint meeting last Saturday evening. The delegates to the annual convention gave their reports. Considerable other business was transacted. At eleven o'clock the ladies served a delightful lunch to some thirty members and friends. We should like to see more of these kind of meetings.

Watch for the announcement of the U.F.A. dance to be held the middle of March.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. John Christensen, last Wednesday, a son.

Mrs. Fred Roe was taken to the Calgary hospital last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Kruse took Sunday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Nelson.

Mr. R. A. Bishop and family spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Packenham.

The meeting of the ratepayers of this municipality on February 16th should be well attended.

SLEDS ON FORDS

—o—

Ford car sleds may vie with dog teams, sleers and toboggaoners at the annual Montreal Winter Carnival which started Friday night.

Several requests have been received from persons who are anxious to enter their Ford Car-sleds, that races be promoted by the carnival, according to report today.

Several Ford cars, stripped for racing purposes and equipped with runners in place of the front wheels are now available in Montreal vicinity, it was learned today.

Drivers, who have previously driven Ford cars on dirt tracks in the United States, and who are now living in Canada, have made known their eagerness to participate in Ford-car sled ice races during the carnival here.

In Northern parts of Ontario Ford cars have been equipped with front runners with unusual success. In Chesley, Ontario, a Ford dealer reports that his Ford car-sled manipulates the deepest snow drifts with the greatest dexterity. "Not only is the Ford efficient even when equipped with sleds but it is great sport to drive and ride in one of these speedy gas sleds," says this dealer.

If the Ford races are held here they will be open to all owners whose cars are equipped with runners on the front and chains on the rear wheels. Such a race should be a big additional feature to the already internationally known Carnival. If the races are held, and they are successful, they will become an annual feature of the winter event here, it is said.

Why Ford Predominates

The Empire Builders

From time immemorial, Britons have gone forth and pioneered the remote corners of the earth.

In the face of seemingly insuperable difficulties they have built up a world-wide trade—trade that grew and flourished in spite of the limitations of those primitive burden-bearers, the native carriers, the mule train and the camel caravan.

Ford carries the burdens of Empire trade on the hill-trails of India, on the African veldt, on the sheep-stations of Australia and New Zealand, on the plantations of Ceylon and Burma, on the rubber estates of Malaya and on the jungle-paths of Borneo.

Universal usage under all these conditions has stamped the Ford as dependable transportation.

Woodrow Wilson Passes

—o—

The world is much the poorer by the death of Woodrow Wilson, ex-President of the United States, which occurred on Sunday. His worth will probably be more justly estimated by future generations than by the present. There is no doubt that he lost his life in the service of his country, and of the world, for the strain of his position as War President told upon his health severely, and shortened his life.

There is no doubt, also that he felt the disappointment of having his great ideal, the League of Nations rejected by his own country, though adopted by almost every other country throughout the globe. There is no doubt that he translated into an actuality the wish of the common people of the warring countries, that some plan should be devised to hasten the day "when war shall be no more," and the child of his brain is functioning efficiently, though shorn of some of its effectiveness by the non-participation of his own country.

He was an idealist. As such, he was slow to convince of the necessity of desirability of America's intervention in the struggle against German ambitions, but when once convinced, he threw all his strength and energy, and diverted all the energies of his country, to the prosecution of the conflict, and emerged a broken man. His idealism possibly made it hard for him to argue the case for the League on the plane of his political opponents, and his last public announcement was a scathing indictment of what he considered his country's apathy towards the great ideal of permanent world peace.

Let us pray for more idealists in the Governments of all countries.

Girls' Social Club

Despite the severe weather on Wednesday evening last, nearly 20 girls of the Wanita Club met at the factory on the kind invitation of Miss Currie.

After opening the meeting with the Lord's prayer, considerable business was done in deciding upon a name, officers, and motto for the club. Business over, a pleasant hour was spent in playing charades, followed by dainty lunch served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. D. French.

It is earnestly hoped that the interest already shown by the girls will continue and so make the club a success.

Next meeting will take the form of a Night With the Scots" at the kind invitation of Mrs. J. A. French.

The officers of the club are as follows: President, Miss M. Watson. Vice-president, Miss G. Chamberlain. Treas., Miss Stephanie Chamberlain.

Irricana U.F.A.

—o—

The regular meeting was held on Saturday, February 2nd, in the U.F.A. hall. Mrs. Wm. Wise (the new U.F.W.A. president presided over the ladies section.

The U.F.A., with president S. J. Ewing in the chair, opened with the reading of the minutes of the last regular meeting, held January 19th, also the minutes of the special meeting held January 26th, at which time the report of delegates Ewing and Lester, who attended the Annual Convention, was given, and at the conclusion of a well enjoyed luncheon, a presentation was made to the two secretaries, Mr. and Mrs. Lester, in the form of a new electric iron for their new home.

On February 2nd, after the adoption of the report by our delegates at the Edmonton convention, a free discussion of the convention took place, led by Messrs Loftsgarden, McCuaig, Carpenter and Black.

The next regular meeting falls on Saturday, February 16. However, on account of the Annual Municipal meeting coming on that date, it has been changed to Friday, February 15th; at which time Mr. Jos. Shaw, M.P. for W. Calgary, will speak.

On March 1st, Mr. G. L. Carpenter, retiring president, will address the meeting; subject: "Has the present Government made good?" Also Mr. Loftsgarden will speak on "High Tariff Under Protection."

During his address to the Legislature on Wednesday, Premier Greenfield announced that the Trade Commissioner's Branch had been investigating the possibilities of manufacture of paper from waste straw of the province, and that successful tests had been carried out, with the co-operation of C. ## WEST'S CONTRIBUTION TO EAST'S CHRISTMAS DINNER

NO fewer than 45,000 turkeys, of which the above were a few, went from Saskatchewan to Eastern Canada for the recent holiday season. The birds, representing a value of more than $100,000, were put up in dozens in standard size boxes and were carefully graded and packed by representatives of the government markets branch. It took fifteen freight cars to carry the shipments of turkeys from Saskatchewan last month and every car was welcomed in Eastern Canada where 30 cents per pound was readily paid for the number one quality birds. This accomplishment is another feather in the co-operative marketing hat and opens up the way for operations on a much larger scale next season. It is interesting to note that up to a couple of years ago the west depended upon the east for its supply of Christmas poultry, but the west now can not only supply its own demands but produce a surplus for export, which surplus was gladly welcomed during the season just past by the eastern markets where turkeys would otherwise have been at a great premium.

Slats' Diary

Friday—well I ben at home all day with a cold and had the lucky fortune to miss skool on acct. of it. which was the only redeaming feature of the hole affare. When pa cum home he spent about a hour telling me how to avoid ketching colds and etc. I just begun to understand that is a pressender to give than to receave, and that is the reason why men are all ways so free with giving advice and wimen are so anksious to give you medicine and Caster Oil.

Saturday—I dont mind having a cold on Friday but its going a little to fur to run over on to Saterday, Jake cum in to see me this evning to tell me what his gang done today. He says he is a reading about Robinson Caruso witch was a contorshunist and I ast what made him think so and he replyed and answered that he red where he got threw wirk and went home and sat down on his Fanny.

Sunday—Had Co. for supper and Pa pulled his usual boneheed play. A yung ole made sed her pa had gave her a plate evry birthday and pa zed well if thats a case I geas you wont need never to wirry about a short age of dishes nor nuthing. Ma tryed to change the subject by tawking about the Box peice Plan, witch Ant Emmy thot was for sum buddy's new house and had been drew by a arkitect.

Monday—well I geas I am in love at last. With my teacher witch is 10 years oldern me but pa has advised me to wait for ten yrs. at lease and then he says she will be about the same age as me or if I wait ten yrs. more she will be younger than me, mebby he knowed what he was fawling of. I don't.

Tuesday—Blisters ant and unkle has got a new baby and have named him Hezekiah after his unkle on his ma's side. So I geas this unkle must be very rich or has a lot of money.

Wensday—Pa layed off frum his wirk today to take the carbin out of his engine and he told me confidently that after putting back on the engine hed on it go I ord never make him beleave that Ford puts a hole car to gather in lessen 6 minits.

Thirday—I was a trying to tell ma what kind of a new hat are teacher has got and I sed it had sum thing on top sticking out and Ant Emmy sed she reckon it must of ben a Nom De Plume.

Nicht Wi' Burns

did attendance. In the course of a short and semi-humorous talk, he spoke of what we owed to the school, especially in this Western country. He also pointed to the inspiration that the lassies with whom Burns had been acquainted had been to him, and said that it it was not for them his greatest poems would never have been penned, and the world would have been the loser.

"Scotland"

The toast of "Scotland" was proposed by Mr. Andrew Archibald, who said that he was half-Scotch and half-Irish, which he considered a very good combination. He told a few humorous stories regarding the acquisitive and retentive faculties of the race, and concluded by saying that the Scotsman was fond of power. He was a born ruler. They would find Scotsmen in the principal positions of Government in London and throughout the Empire, and in finance and various other lines they were supreme. Power in all forms appealed to them, which was probably the reason that nearly every assembly under the British flag had a Scotsman in control of the engines.

At midnight the floor was cleared, and dancing was engaged in till the wee sma' 'oors. Most of the dances were distinctively Scottish, strenuous, and productive of great merriment, the skirl of the bagpipes, and the "hoochs" of the dancers as they went through the complicated evolutions of the old country dances, making the occasional modern fox-trot or waltz seem tame and flat by comparison.

Miss Gauld Dances

A treat was given to the audience in an interval of the programme by the performance of the Highland Fling, Sword Dance, and another solo dance by Miss Jean Gauld, whose name is familiar throughout Western Canada as a leading exponent of the terpsichorean art. The beautiful exhibition given by her showed that she had well won her title as the premier dancer of the West.
